TCS	23.8%	Loss
TVS Motors	86.9%	Profit

- From the above table we can see that Eicher Motors and TVS Motors has done pretty well there. With profit upto 80%
- Whereas, Infosys and TCS has failed to make profits
- Baja Auto couldn't bring us huge profits though yet able to make considerable profit

- Considering both the stat tables from previous pages, One assumption that we could make is the Stock which were in Hold for most of the time has made the maximum chances to make profits.
- Reason being, the stock has been in death cross for minimal times
- As death cross and golden cross are directly proportional to each other, so does the Golden cross is less as well for the same
